

THE RECOGNISED ASSOCIATION REPRESENTING THE INTERESTS OF BARBICAN RESIDENTS

Hello

There are many great reasons to be a member of the Barbican Association.
Can I tempt you to join?

Membership provides access to an exclusive discount scheme at local restaurants and service providers.

What's more, you will have access to special events arranged exclusively for Barbican Association Members. These have included a visit 'behind the scenes' at Smithfield Market; a tour of the Lord Mayor's Mansion House; a visit to Big Ben at the Houses of Parliament and a sought after tour of the Whitechapel Bell Foundry.

Full details of our latest events and an application form will be sent with your membership card upon receipt of the enclosed membership form and updates appear within my regular membership articles in the Barbican Life magazine.

Support our work with your membership and if you wish become a voice on one of our committees dealing with issues that involve us all, from management of the estate, to monitoring planning and licensing applications on our periphery; security, environmental and access issues.

Even if you haven't time to become involved, your membership ensures that we have a strong voice to represent your view in all these matters.

The chance to meet myself, fellow committee members and fellow residents over a glass of wine at our AGM on 29 April 2010.

And best of all membership costs just £5 a year if you choose to pay by standing order. If you wish to pay by cheque the membership fee is £7.

Tempted now? Please enter your details overleaf and send this form back to me with your standing order instructions or subscription cheque for membership with immediate effect.

I look forward to welcoming you onboard.
